A O C B

A Cameron asked councillors re the position of monies being available to Seaside towns. It was stated that the Scottish Government designates the chosen towns. She made mention of lights being out on footpath, and their non-repair being the subject of a dispute between contractors and the Council. P Convery will investigate.

K Workman asked re suitable storage space for the Chernobyl Children's Lifeline. Cllr McFarlane advised contact with SAC for a possible 6 months' lease of buildings such as disused toilet block at Templehill.

Troon Youth Centre -K Beckwith advised that he had been requested to take down the TYC website details. C Malone spoke of his meeting with Ms N Sykes (SAC), and of his offer to assist as a Youth Worker in the running of TYC, with poor reception. General opinion was one of no confidence in the present situation.

D Graham spoke of his attendance at an Access Forum Meeting and confirmed that the Government can close rights of way, without public consultation, for major events. He also spoke of the 5 Troon Walks.

E Williamson spoke of the continuing confusion of drivers at the traffic lights at Church St/Portland St, and it was agreed that, once again, this was due to poor driving skills. She further noted that the amber lights at Lang Road had been out of action for 2 weeks.

D Barr praised the work of those responsible for the magnificent floral displays in Troon Centre, and its surrounds. In addition she made mention of the Smugglers Trail and the necessity for clearing undergrowth in some of the area. She also raised the problem with the "Grey Bins", and asked what the cost was to ratepayers. When it was explained that the Scottish Government had funded this initiative, and that contents would be recycled in North Ayrshire to assist with energy production, she further stated that a previous information meeting was extremely poorly attended, in part possibly due to lack of appropriate signage.

D Cram enquired as to the position and responsibility of road signs being obscured by overgrown trees etc. It was stated that any obstructions should in the first instance be reported to the local Council Office.

C Malone asked the Council for their views on promoting a "Christmas Lights Trail" which he would be happy to orchestrate, and this was agreed.

M Love spoke of her attendance at the Outbox 4 Website training. She suggested that it would be in the best interests of the Community Council to designate one computer literate person to be involved re input and updating of data. It was generally agreed that Keir Beckwith would be the ideal choice, on a remunerative basis.
